The 10 winners of the RATP Poetry Grand Prix 2019, all categories combined, will be unveiled on June 17 at an award ceremony to be attended by 100 finalists, jury members and president Isabelle Carre.----------
The laureates will have the chance to see their poem posted during the two summer months on the entire RATP network and will be read every day by millions of travelers. Three of them who will have particularly pleased the jury will be distinguished by obtaining a Grand Prize: the Grand Prix Adults who will win a weekend in Athens, the Grand Prix Young who will win cultural gift vouchers and the Grand Children's Prize which will be offered a tactile tablet. The 100 finalists will, in turn, be published in a collection published in partnership with Gallimard editions.
RATP AND POETRY IS A BEAUTIFUL HISTORY----------
For 25 years, the RATP offers its travelers, during their journey, moments of poetry, and allows them to be in daily contact with the greatest texts of the genre through the operation "lines and rhymes" which presents travelers with author poems.
Since 1997, the company has participated in the dissemination of amateur poetry by organizing major poetry competitions, each of which is presided over by a personality from the world of Arts and Letters, such as Matthieu Chedid, David Foenkinos, Stephane Groodt, Zabou Breitman or Augustin Trapenard.
